5.8. The Controller shall communicate any rectification or erasure of Personal Data to each recipient to whom the Personal Data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The Controller shall inform the Data Subject about those recipients if the Data Subject requests it.

D. Right to restriction of processing of the Personal Data

5.9. The Data Subject shall have the right to obtain from the Controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- a) the accuracy of the Personal Data is contested by the Data Subject, for a period enabling the Controller to verify the accuracy of the Personal Data;
- b) the processing is unlawful and the Data Subject opposes the erasure of the Personal Data and requests the restriction of their use instead;

- c) the Controller no longer needs the Personal Data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the Data Subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- d) the Data Subject has objected to processing pursuant to Article 21 section 1 of the GDPR pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Controller override those of the Data Subject

5.10. The Controller shall communicate any restriction of processing of Personal Data to each recipient to whom the Personal Data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The Controller shall inform the Data Subject about those recipients if the Data Subject requests it.

E. The right to transfer Personal Data

5.11. The Data Subject shall have the right to receive the Personal Data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to a controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the Personal Data have been provided, where (1) the processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6 section 1 of the GDPR or point (a) of Article 9 section 2 of the GDPR or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of Article 6 section of the GDPR and (2) the processing is carried out by automated mean.

5.12. In exercising his or her right to data portability pursuant to section 5.12. of this document, the Data Subject shall have the right to have the Personal Data transmitted directly from one Controller to another, where technically feasible.

F. The right to object and the rights associated with automated decision-making in individual cases

5.13. The Data Subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of Personal Data concerning him or her which is based on point (e) or (f) of Article 6 section 1 of the GDPR, including profiling based on those provisions. The Controller shall no longer process the Personal Data unless the Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the Data Subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims

5.14. Where Personal Data are processed for direct marketing purposes, the Data Subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of Personal Data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

5.15. At the latest at the time of the first communication with the Data Subject, the right referred to in sections 5.14. and 5.15. shall be explicitly brought to the attention of the Data Subject and shall be presented clearly and separately from any other information.

- 5.16. Where the Data Subject objects to processing for direct marketing purposes, the Personal Data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.
- 5.17. The Data Subject shall have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning him or her or similarly significantly affects him or her, unless it is necessary for entering into, or performance of, a contract between the Data Subject and a data controller, is authorised by Union or Member State law to which the Controller is subject and which also lays down suitable measures to safeguard the Data Subject's rights and freedoms and legitimate interests or is based on the Data Subject's explicit consent.

6. „Cookies” Policy

- 6.1. The Controller, managing the website <https://www.lobohr.pl>, obtains access to cookie files and uses them. The cookie files (the so-called "cookies") are IT data, in particular text files, which are stored in the user's end device.
